APPOINTMENTS ARE CONFIRMED

Mayor and Council Come to an Understanding.

MORRIS SANCTIONS MOORE

POLICE DEPARTMENT BENEFITS BY THE TRUCE.

Four police department appointments of Mayor Richard P. Morris were confirmed by the city council last evening without any debate. The action is taken as an outward sign that the persistent rumor which has been floating around in political circles lately that the mayor and the nine Republican councilmen "were getting together" is quite correct. Two of the appointments increase the department pay roll $160 per month.

Mayor Morris consented to Chief of Police William J. Lynch sending in the name of George H. Moore as patrolman to fill a vacancy. The first time Moore was appointed by Chief Lynch he was recommended by Councilman Black, one of the leaders of the Republican majority. The mayor vetomorrow. Tomorrow might the engage ment will close with "The Degenerates."

The first flutter of the wings of the dove of peace in the council chamber was heard last evening when Council-man Preece introduced a resolution providing for the appointment of a night jailer and night fireman at the police station at $75 per month. After a little discussion the night jailer's salary was raised to $85 per month. In that form the resolution was put to a vote and carried.

vote and carried.

A few minutes later Mayor Morris and Chief Lynch were seen to move into one corner of the council chamber, where they held a conference lasting several minutes. The passage of the Preece resolution and the conference of the mayor and chief were double surprises to the gallery, for they showed that "something was doing." But the prises to the gallery, for they showed that "something was doing." But the sallery was not prepared for what came next, the following appointments by Chief Lynch, with the approval and sanction of Mayor Morris, which were sent in when the conference came to Edward W. Palmer, to be patrolman to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Officer Burt to night jailer.

George H. Moore, to be patrolman, to fill a vacancy now existing.

The appointments were confirmed.

Black Elected Chairman.

In the absence of President Hewlett, who is on the Pacific coast, Council-man Black was elected to the chair. The petition of the Farmington Consolidated Oil & Gas, company for a franchise to lay pipes throughout the city for the distribution of gas, was referred to the committee of the whole to come up for discussion Wednesday night. It was accompanied by a $200 check and nineteen duplicate copies of the ordinance asked for.

nunication was referred to the Jordan eanal committee.

By a vote of 7 to 5 the council placed on file the veto by Mayor Morris of ouncilman Black's resolution pro lights. Those who attempted to pass the resolution over the mayor's veto were Councilmen Black, A. J. Davis, Hobday, Martin, Neuhausen, Councilmen Wells, Wood and President Hew-

---MISSIONARIES ARE HOME.

Elders Lyman, Blood and Holdaway

Return From European Labors. After an absence of nearly three years in the mission fields of England, Elder Francis M. Lyman, president of the council of apostles, and late president of the European missions, returned home yesterday, arriving in Salt Lake City at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. He was succeeded in England by Elder Heber J. Grant.

Elder Lyman was accompanied home by Elders Joseph J. Cannon of this city.
Henry H. Blood of Kaysville and J. Alma Aloidaway of Provo, who left the train at that city. The latter had been laboring as a missionary in Turkey and Palestine for four years. While in England Elder Cannon was editor of the Millennial Star. Elder Blood was president of the London conference.
The returned missionaries reported conditions, from a Mormon point of view, as being very flourishing in their late fields. They say that Heber S. Goddard and Miss Nannie Tout, two students in London, will soon return home, the former in the spring and the latter in the field.
